Все люди рождаются свободными и равными в своем достоинстве и правах. Они наделены разумом и совестью и должны поступать в отношении друг друга в духе братства.

All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed with reason and conscience and should act towards one another in a spirit of brotherhood.

Όλοι οι άνθρωποι γεννιούνται ελεύθεροι και ίσοι στην αξιοπρέπεια και τα δικαιώματα. Είναι προικισμένοι με λογική και συνείδηση, και οφείλουν να συμπεριφέρονται μεταξύ τους με πνεύμα αδελφοσύνης.

demonstration of Blackletter calligraphy by Ward Dunham at the ATypI conference in 1994. "Seeing Dunham create all these letters out of four or five basic strokes prompted me to try the same concept," recalled Montalbano. "I combined that idea with the notion of taking historical forms like blackletter and progressively paring them down to achieve a futuristic version as if this old form naturally evolved over several hundred years to

ITC Orbon™ 2020
Regular & Black

A redesign of ITC Orbon, originally released in 1995. This update contains an extended character set with support for extended Latin, including Vietnamese, Cyrillic and Monotonic Greek. SMALL CAPS and several figure styles, as well as a full complement on superior and inferior characters. Some of the text used in the specimen comes from the original release article published in U&lc Volume 22, Number 2, Fall 1995, with minor updates. The trilingual text comes from the United Nations International Declaration of Human Rights.

digital Montalbano went on to use the font drawing program Ikarus-M (and now, 30 years later, FontLab 7) on the Mac to create new designs commissioned by his clients, and to tailor existing designs to their specific needs. Today, from his studio, Terminal Design Inc., Montalbano does custom type work for high profile magazines like Gourmet, GQ, and Vanity Fair. His first design, ITC Orbon, took shape over one year, inspired in part by a

After earning a degree in Industrial Education and Graphic Arts Technology, James Montalbano began his career teaching industrial arts to junior high school students. He went on to get a master's in Technology Education and taught offset lithography, traditional pre-press and silk-screen printing to college students. It was here that he discovered graphic design and gravitated away from the classroom setting. He took his knowledge of printing technology to

New York City and landed a variety of magazine production jobs. Montalbano admits that throughout design school he considered his lack of illustration talent to be a disadvantage, so he compensated by learning all he could about type. He came to realize that with solid execution skills he could always get work, and so for the past 30 years his design practice has focused heavily on lettering and typography for magazines. When type went
